What a Child Needs?: (Part Seven) (Paperback)

By Melissa L Bryant

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . There are principles, and I think that love, limits, and latitude are solid principles to apply to our parenting. I stayed on my knees while raising my children. Authoritative parenting takes time, patience, creativity, faith, and inspiration. No parent handles every situation perfectly. When we fall short as parents, we need to apologize to our children and try to do better. Despite the challenges, we need to take comfort in knowing that the good things we try to do as parents really do matter. we just want what s best for our children. I learned as a parent sometimes they have to make mistakes to learn from them. We can t always save them. Children are no different from adults in wanting to be involved in making the decisions that affect them.
