Army War College, 1996 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)44374640 Subject: Unified operations (Military science) Excerpt: . . . inappropriate tactics, and suffered from breakdowns in 39 discipline. While the validity of such accounts has been debated, the fact remains that the overall success of the operation failed to preclude congressional criticism, and the 40 Reagan administration again found itself on the defensive. Congressional Reaction. These brief operational sketches and the congressional reactions they elicited complete the historical context that shaped the widespread congressional perception that the U. S. military was in need of reform. As early as June 1983, members of Congress already were considering changes within the Department of Defense. Senators John Tower and Henry (Scoop) Jackson, then Chairman and Ranking Minority member of the Senate Committee on Armed Services, for example, directed the committee staff to conduct a study of the organization and decision-making procedures of the Department of Defense. For the next 18 months, the study took the form of hearings, interviews, and research. In January 1985, Senators Barry Goldwater and Sam...
