SELL THE RONALD PRESS COMPANY NEW YORK To N EVE s Conservationist, Outdoorsman, and Friend PREFACE This is a fishermans book. No matter whether you fish for trout along a flashing mountain stream, go for panfish with a worm, or take catfish on quiet evenings when the stars are held captive in the dark waters, it is a book written for you. It tells you how to fool a wise old brown trout with a dry fly, the basic lore of wet fly fishing, the way to use streamers and plugs, the proper equipment--and a lot more. In short, this book discusses the whys and hows of fresh water fishing in all their manifestations. It is based on the trials, errors, and successes of my practical experiences. I am deeply indebted to many other practical hermen who have contributed to the book by their suggestions as to what it should contain. Thanks are also due Lyman Hawbacker, Editor of The American Woodsman, and Lawrence Kelly, Editor of Fishing Waters of the World, for permission to use certain material of mine which first appeared in their magazines.
