Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The American Journal of Insanity, 1848-9, Vol. 5 With this sum at their disposal, excepting fifty thousand dollars, of which only the interest could be used, the Trustees commenced their inquiries relative to the manner in which they could best meet the wishes of the benefactors of the institution, and supply the peculiar wants of this community. In the first place, it was concluded that it should be made capable of receiving from one hundred and twenty to one hundred and thirty patients, and of furnishing accommodations varying in some degree, at least, with the terms of remuneration; that it should combine the qualities of a public and private establishment where the poor should be provided for in a manner equal to that of our best State institutions, and the rich should receive something like an equivalent for any compensation they might be required to make. It was thought, however, that the number of this latter class who would have occasion to resort to the hospital from this immediate neighborhood, would be too small to admit of the...
