COMMUNITY CHEST

Two Sylvias Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 56 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.1in. Diagnosed with breast cancer, Natalie Serber did the only thing she could: she wrote her way through the confusion and fear. In this fear and good-humored memoir, she maintains her sense of gratitude and grace. Praise for Community Chest: I loved Natalie Serbers smart, funny and bittersweet report from the Land of Breast Cancer. Fear and grief take turns with an almost normal day; kindness and honesty collide with irrational rage. While generously detailing the unique aspects of her personal journey, she also manages to honor the collective experience so many (too many!) of us have shared. Now we have this story to share too. Elizabeth Rosner, author of Electric City, Blue Nude, and The Speed of Light Natalie Serber is the kind of friend you long for when things get hardtough enough to see how dark things can get, but with enough pluck and fortitude to show you how to thrash through it. This perfect memoir is not just a tale of surviving a diagnosis but of truly experiencing it, observing it, and feeling all that it bringsgravity, absurdity, craziness, fury, tenacity, and love. Robin Romm, author of The Mercy Papers and The Mother Garden What I loved about this book: the honesty, the unadorned reality, the bitter, the sweet, the surrenderthe lucidness, and lyric grace that touched these pages, calling you friend, whispering secrets, helping readers grapple with their own struggles with the fear and pain and shame that comes from a diagnosis of Cancer. Natalie Serber is a born writer, braiding past, present and future into a story that is both vulnerable and strong, witty and filled with insight. Naseem Rakha, author of The Crying Tree Natalie Serbers Community Chest closely describes and considers...
