By Mercedes Lackey

Penguin Putnam Inc, United States, 1998. Paperback. Condition: New. Larry Dixon (illustrator). Reissue. Language: English . Brand New Book. Once the tiny village of Errold s Grove, located on the border of Valdemar at the edge of the vast Pelagiris Forest, had been a prosperous community, trading the unique plants and fungi which grew in the dense forest for use in dyeing textiles. But that was before the mage-storms came. The mage-storms had devastated the forest, transforming many of its creatures into hideous beasts, warping the very land, and shattering the laws of magic which had governed the world since time immemorial. Only the bravest souls ventured into the Pelagiris now, but young Darian and his parents were among those courageous few. Darian s parents were hunters who worked in the strange new forest with intelligence and caution, trapping the bizarre change-creatures which had been created by the mage-storms and selling their fantastic hides. But Darian had not accompanied them on their last expedition into the Pelagiris, a hunt from which they never returned. Now, a year after his parents disappearance, Darian is a ward of Errold s Grove, apprenticed to Wizard Justyn, a bumbling old man who lost most...
