Evolved Publishing, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .If the Seekers fail this time, they risk not a stoning, but losing themselves in the twilight of a never-ending dream. WINNER: Pinnacle Book Achievement Award - Best Science Fiction WINNER: Readers Favorite Book Awards - Silver Medal - Young Adult Sci-Fi But what are we without dreams? Against all odds, Orah and Nathaniel have found the keep and revealed the truth about the darkness, initiating what they hoped would be a new age of enlightenment. But the people were more set in their ways than anticipated, and a faction of vicars whispered in their ears, urging a return to traditional ways. Desperate to keep their movement alive, Orah and Nathaniel cross the ocean to seek the living descendants of the keepmasters kin. Those they find on the distant shore are both more and less advanced than expected. The seekers become caught between the two sides, and face the challenge of bringing them together to make a better world. The prize: a chance to bring home miracles and a more promising future for their people. The cost of failure: unimaginable. [Dystopian, Science Fiction, Post-Apocalyptic, Religion] Kirkus Reviews: In this YA sci-fi sequel, Litwack pushes his characters into new physical, mental, and emotional realms as they encounter an unusual, tech-based society. A grand, revelatory saga that continues to unfold. Evolved Publishing presents the multiple award-winning second book in the extraordinary The Seekers, a series that has received many awards (for all 3 books) and exceptional reviews This is a series you do not want to miss.
