Excerpt from The City Foursquare: Bethel Baptist Church, Located on Corner of South Dekalb and Gidney Streets, Shelby, N. C Our Text says that as Jesus prayed the fashion of his countenance was changed or altered and his rai ments were White and glistening. Something was changed as Jesus prayed. Have you ever prayed so that a change could be felt? I want to make some statements about prayer, that I am sure that all of you people will not agree with me in all of them. But I believe what I say. The first state ment about prayer is: prayer changes things Many people have a motto in their home with these words on it. I wonder if you believe what it says. How do you feel When you look at the motto? What do we mean by the words of that motto? We ought to have some idea of What the statement mean or else it is of no good in our home other than ornamental. What things are we thinking of when we read, Prayer Changes Things? Can we say that we do know that prayer changes things? Have we ever had an experience of answered prayer? The second thing that I want to say about Prayer is: prayer changes condition. Now you think about that. Bad conditions. Extraordinary conditions. War. Sickness. Pestilence, Famine. Just plain old bad condition can be changed by the prayers of God s people. The third thing about Prayer that I wish to say is that prayer can change the mind OF god. The Holy God that loves us. The God we love and worship. In the past when man repented and called on God,...
