

Finding Angels

By Keith Stuart Thomsen

Zink, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Bound, gagged, and nailed to the wall, a young woman, who quickly becomes known as Sniper, watches as the old man she considered little more than a kindly customer slaughter her family in front of her. With two other men, the old man splatters arcane symbols on the ground around her and attempts to transfer his consciousness into her body. However, before he can finish, the very power that attracted him to her awakens. Sniper frees herself in a rush of metal and blood. After collapsing her house on top of the monster in human flesh, she escapes into the world not knowing what to do next. Sniper realizes that not only can she create any gun she can think of, but she s now neigh unkillable. Hunter and Susi are two of the best Demon hunters in the country, probably because Hunter is what most would call a War Demon, and Susi is one of the only Devils allowed to walk freely on Earth. Together they track the monsters that have slipped into darkness and prey on...
