Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Hearing the sound of music, twins Sandi and Handi see two musical notes floating through the air! The notes have become separated from their friends because the elves didn't use enough glue to keep the notes stuck to the paper. Sandi and Handi set off on a journey to reunite the musical notes, which are called crotchets, with their friends the minims and quavers so that the conductor can finish the rehearsal and prepare for the concert. Along the way, they run into some of their friends who help them locate the other notes that escaped. Will Sandi and Handi be able to find all the musical notes for the conductor? Or will the concert have to be cancelled? Michael Rosenberg resides in Brookmans Park, Herts in the UK where he serves as chairman of three companies and is non-executive director of three other companies. He was awarded the O.B.E. in the UK by the Queen in 1996 for services to exports. Rosenberg has traveled the world and experienced many adventures along...
